Original yet poetic: Création Baumann's NATURE & POEMS home collection combines fluid materials with bold textures and nature's subtle play of colours.

If you love what is genuine then you will find all the facets of natural materials in this collection. Country-style linen meets fluffy wool yarns, fine textures are complemented by powerful ornaments. The colour range is primarily composed of discreet earthy colours to maximise combination options. Dark indigo, charming pink and suspenseful alternations between light and dark are emphasising clarity. An overtone of slight imperfection, of the home-made, lends the collection its special character.
